It was widely said that since the Ring of Peace was lost there could be no true king of Earthsea. Rose made a dim glow of werelight so that they could find their way through the marshy ground around the spring without falling in a sinkhole among the reeds. In the cold darkness under a few stars and the black curve of the hill, they stripped and waded into the shallow water, their feet sinking deep in velvet mud. The witch touched the girl's hand, saying, "I take your name, child. You are no child. You have no name."."Medra did not answer at once. "Chance," he said at last, "favoring long desire. Not art. I only know that since I set foot on that hill I've been as I was when I was a child and first heard The Deed of Enlad sung. I am lost among wonders."."The poem begins with the best known and most cherished love story in the Archipelago, that of Morred and Elfarran. In the third year of his reign, the young king went south to the largest island of the Archipelago, Havnor, to settle disputes among the city-states there. Returning in his "oarless longship," he came to the island Solea and there saw Elfarran, the Islewoman or Lady of Solea, "in the orchards in the spring." So he took the crown himself. And some say that's wrong, and he doesn't rightly hold the throne. But others say the king himself is the new Archmage. But he isn't a wizard, only a king. Men of arms didn't trust men of craft and didn't like to serve them. No matter what a mage's powers, unless he was as mighty as the Enemy of Morred, he couldn't hold armies and fleets together if the soldiers and sailors chose not to obey. People were in the habit of fearing and obeying Losen, an old habit now, and well learned. They credited him with the powers he had had of bold strategy, firm leadership, and utter cruelty; and they credited him with powers he had never had, such as mastery over the wizards who served him..Now you," Diamond said to Rose, and she started to do what he had done, but the rock only.guess, foretell, fear, hope, but I didn't know..Keep an eye on him then, master," said the carter..Lord Thorion has returned from death to save us all," the Windkey said, fiercely and clearly. No dragons will threaten the Inmost Sea. There will be order, safety, and peace."."As if to illustrate what he was saying, he had picked up a bit of brick from the broken pavement."I don't know," Dragonfly said.
